Claims Process – Interview Questions and Answers

#	Question	Answer	Source
1	Which processes in the company take longer than they should?	Manual entry of data, and saving documents in the system.	Interview
2	What are the time limits in the claims process?	The insured must report damage within 3 working days (24 hours for theft or robbery). The insurer pays within 15 days of receiving all required documents.	Bul Ins general terms (2026), not asked in the interview
3	What do employees most often complain about, if at all?	Giving out the documents.	Interview
4	Which process is currently entirely manual?	AI could help by signalling when a document is not completed close to its deadline.	Interview
5	Do employees have to check the same information several times?	Yes	Interview
6	How much time do employees spend answering repeated questions?	It depends on the claim and on the employee.	Interview
7	Is claims data mostly digital, or still in documents and emails?	It is still in documents and emails	Interview
8	How are suspicious or fake claims currently detected?	Not answered in the interview. The terms exclude staged events and false information and allow the insurer to refuse payment, but they don't describe how detection works.	Bul Ins general terms (2026), partial